

West Corporation Partners with Telestream to Simplify High-Quality Live Streaming for Events and Webinars

April 8, 2019

Telestream adds West Studio to Wirecast as a new streaming destination, making it easy and secure for customers to broadcast directly to the West Studio platform.

OMAHA, Neb., April 08, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- West Corporation ("West" or the "Company"), a global leader in technology-enabled services, announced today that Telestream customers now have direct access to West Studio, the leading webcasting and streaming solution, as a new secure and scalable streaming destination for the enterprise.

Integrated into Telestream Wirecast, West Studio lets customers easily broadcast high-quality video for live streams, webinars, webcasts, training videos, and more. Users simply select West Studio from a pull-down menu within the Wirecast user interface and stream directly to the platform. This integration streamlines production work flows, reduces cost, increases speed to market and elevates the production value of the event.

"The ease-of-use and broadcast quality production this integration offers is unparalleled, giving organizations the ability to deliver video communications with incredible sophistication right from the desktop," said Ben Chodor, President of West Digital Media Solutions.

West is trusted by enterprise customers worldwide, delivering over 40,000 events annually that include town hall meetings, product announcements, earnings updates and marketing webinars. Partnered with Telestream, the award-winning production software solution, West and Telestream customers now have an end-to-end enterprise streaming solution with optional services to produce a live stream or webcast in minutes.

"We are very proud to partner with West on this integration, which brings TV quality streaming to the enterprise to advance video communications and drive audience engagement," said Scott Puopolo, CEO of Telestream. West will be attending the NAB Show with Telestream, April 8-11, 2019. Attendees can visit the Telestream booth #SL3308 to learn more about the new offerings or schedule a meeting at NAB here.
